CUPBEARER IS DISQUALIFIED.

Finishes First for Prince of Wales Stakes at Ascot, but Ard Patrick Is Given the Race.

LONDON, June 17 .- A vast and fashonable attendance marked the opening of the Royal Ascot race meeting. Excellent sport is promised for the week, as a large number of horses are here. The Gold Vase (of 200 sovereigns, given by the King) for three-year-olds was von by George Faber's Ice Maiden. This cleared the way for the big race the day, the Ascot Stakes, handicap, of 20 sovereigns each, which was won Carabine finished second and Ramling Katie third. Thirteen horses

Rock Sand, with Danny Maher, the Yankee jockey, up, won the Coventry Stakes, of 10 sovereigns each, for twoyear-olds. The La Fleche filly, with J. H. ("Skeets") Martin (American) up, J. H. ("Skeets") Martin (American) up, was second, and Red Lliy came in third. The result of the race for the Prince of Wales S Etakes to 50 sovs. each, with 1600 sovs. added, for three-year-olds), upset all calculations. Ard Patrick, the Derby winner, was a hot favorite at to 1 on, but the favorite came in second. The result was as follows:

The Duke of Westminster's Cupbearer (M. Cannon) Gubbins's Ard Patrick (Martin). thur James's Persons (Maher)...

Seven horses started. An objection was lodged against Cup-earer on the ground of bumping and ng.
he stewards sustained the objection.
Ard Patrick, who was three-quarof a length behind, was awarded the race.

The Duke of Devonshire's Cheers, ridden by Spencer, was placed third, so American jockeys were one, two, three.
